Topic 1: Foreclosures and How the City of SJ Can Help

Speaker: Theresa Hayes - City of San Jose Housing Department

ABSTRACT: Over the last three years, San José families and households have received over 36,000 foreclosure filings from the banks on their home; this is a 280% increase from 2007 to 2009. To assist the impacted residents, the City of San José Housing Department is offering a free workshop to various congregants. Please join us to learn more about free services that include homeowners and renters assistance with options, loan documents, referrals to HUD-certified foreclosure prevention counselors, lenders, nonprofit legal services, emergency financial assistance and other housing services.

Topic 2: Islamic Perspective on Parenting

Speaker: Dr. Mohammad Rajabally (NISA)

ABSTRACT: A detail Islamic perspective on Parenting will be presented. An introduction to the other services provided by NISA will also be presented by a NISA representative. Please join us to learn more about these very important family services and social services by NISA, which can enrich our families and our communities
